

PRESS INVITATION

Big Data & AI Paris 2026: press accreditation now open - AI, data, governance and business transformation

Paris, 30 June 2026 - Press accreditation is now open for Big Data & AI Paris 2026, taking place on 15 & 16 September at Paris Expo Porte de Versailles.

The event is expected to bring together 15,000 attendees, 200 exhibitors and sponsors, 300 speakers, and 350 conference sessions and workshops addressing the key challenges shaping data and AI transformation: modern data architecture, governance, regulation, the industrialisation of AI use cases, generative and agentic AI, digital sovereignty and business value creation.

Press accreditation provides access to the conference programme and exhibition areas. It also offers journalists the opportunity to meet the business leaders, experts, speakers, exhibitors and partners supporting the data and AI transformation of major French organisations.

Journalists wishing to cover the event can submit an accreditation request to Joanna Kirk, Press Relations Manager, including their name, media outlet and full contact details.

For interview requests, further information or introductions ahead of the event, please contact us at the same address.

Our latest press releases are available on the website.

We look forward to welcoming you to Big Data & AI Paris 2026.
